Suggested activities to be organised by schools

- Schools submit applications for the GP Programme
- Recruit students to be Green Prefects and set up a GP group
- Formulate work plan and roster, set targets and arrange duties

- GPs use the Environmental Checklist to conduct monitoring duties every month
- Organise environmental promotion activities
- Hold meetings regularly to follow up on the monitoring progress and report schoolmates' performance
- Conduct mid-term evaluation in the middle of the school year

- Consolidate and analyse overall performance of all grades and environmental aspects
- Conduct year-end evaluation to review the school's environmental performance of the whole school year and make improvement recommendations
- Present certificates to commend GPs

Recommended Green Prefect Group Structure and Responsibilities of GPs

* Schools can modify and revise the GP Group structure according to its needs

Recommended Green Prefect Group Structure

- Can modify and revise the GP Group structure according to the school's needs
- Examples:
  - ✓ Adjust the no. of appointed Head GPs and GPs
  - ✓ Assign not more than two Head GPs in each participating school, who are usually from senior levels and directly responsible to the Teacher Advisor
  - ✓ Exempt the Head GPs, teacher-in-charge takes the responsibility of coordinating the Programme and activities
  - ✓ GPs of senior levels pair up with those of junior levels to assist the latter in performing their monitoring duties
  - ✓ Only appoint Senior students as GPs

Promotion & Recruitment of GPs

Promotion

Examples:

- Stick programme posters on campus
- Promote the programme during morning assembly or via school campus TV
- Include the programme as one of the extra-curricular activities for students to choose to join

Recruitment Method

Examples:

- ✓ Students sign up voluntarily, then the Teacher Advisor selects and appoints students who are passionate about environmental protection
- ✓ Each class teacher nominates students as GPs for his/her class
- ✓ Assign existing monitors/prefects to undertake the GP duties
- ✓ Select and appoint members from Student Environmental Club to be GPs
