救世軍石湖學校 (中學部)
The Salvation Army Shek Wu School (Secondary Section)

救世軍石湖學校 (中學部) 利用「全校參與」及「制定—推行—檢討」模式，將學校發展成綠色學校。學校實行多項環境管理措施及可再生能源項目，亦成立親子園藝小組，舉辦含感官園藝治療元素的種植活動，並積極協助活化校園園圃。

The Salvation Army Shek Wu School (Secondary Section) adopts the “whole-school participation” and “formulate - implement - review” models to build a green school. The school implements a wide range of environmental management measures and renewable energy projects. A parent-child gardening group is also formed to organise planting activities with sensory horticultural therapy elements, as well as actively assist in revitalising the campus garden.

設置可再生能源裝置，包括太陽能燈柱、太陽能板及發電健身單車，以潔淨方式提供電力作校園照明及流動電子儀器充電之用，並舉辦跨學科學習活動——「太陽能充電車模型設計比賽」，讓學生深入瞭解太陽能發電的原理和應用，加強他們對可再生能源的概念及環保意識。

Installing renewable energy facilities including solar-powered lampposts, solar panels and electricity-generating bicycles to provide a clean source of energy for campus lighting and charging mobile devices. Interdisciplinary learning activities — “Solar-powered Car Model Design Competition” was also organised for students to gain in-depth understanding of the principles and applications of solar power generation, strengthening their awareness towards the concept of renewable energy and environmental protection.

設有綠化空間如空中花園、種植園圃，並為植物編製二維碼標籤及定期更新植物資料名冊，以加深學生對校園植物種類的認識；學生亦透過參與親子校園綠化小組活動及園藝治療講座學習種植技巧，除培養園藝興趣外，亦為認知、社交、情緒、身體機能和創造力等方面帶來正面發展。

Setting up green areas such as campus gardens and planting plots, labelling plants with QR codes and updating the plant database regularly to enrich students' knowledge on the school's plant species. Students also acquired planting techniques through participation in the parent-child campus gardening activities and seminars on Horticultural Therapy. These not only cultivated their interest in gardening, but also brought positive influences in the realms of cognition, social interaction, emotion, physical abilities and creativity.

每年舉辦以「低碳」為主題的環保週，活動包括「自備水樽及餐具日」、「無廚餘日」、「無飲管日」及「以物換物」，積極實踐節約減廢，並進行問卷調查及收集級社領袖對學校環保政策的意見，於校政交流會時與校長商議改善校園環保表現的方案。

Organising “Low-carbon” themed environmental week annually, activities including “Bring Your Own Bottle and Cutlery Day”, “Food Waste Free Day”, “Plastic Straw Free Day” and “Swap Party”, with a view to advocating conservation and waste reduction. A survey was conducted to collect student leaders' opinions on the school's environmental policy. Students' suggestions on improving the campus environmental performance were discussed with the principal during the conference.
