

ECC Education for Sustainable Development Series: Climate Action and Low-Carbon Living Practices – New Horizons in Teaching Activities
Rundown

Pre-Training:

1. An account on SDGCAMPUS will be created for the participants.
2. Materials on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals are provided to the participants via SDGCAMPUS.
3. A pre-training survey will be collected via SDGCAMPUS.

Training Day (24 October 2026):

13:45-14:00	Assemble at Exit A of University Station
14:00-14:40	Guided Tour: Jockey Club Museum of Climate Change – “From Crisis to Action”
14:40-15:00	Sharing by Dr. Felix P. K. Leung (Head of Climate Education and Action, Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development Office, CUHK) on experiences in promoting climate education
15:00-15:15	Take the free coach arranged by the training organiser to the Hong Kong Institute of Education for Sustainable Development
15:15-15:20	Registration & Kit Distribution at the HiESD
15:20-15:35	Brief introduction of values education (including education for sustainable development) by EDB Representative
15:35-16:25	Seminar by Professor Karen Cheung (President, UNESCO Hong Kong Association; Director, HiESD) on “From UNESCO Framework & HK Policy to Classroom Reality”
16:25-16:35	Break
16:35-17:15	Practitioner Sharing by UNSDGs Certified Teacher on “From the Case Book to the Classroom”
17:15-17:35	Workshop: Design a Climate Action Lesson Plan
17:35-18:00	Sharing, Feedback and Closing
18:00	Dismissal at the Hong Kong Institute of Education for Sustainable Development

Post-Training:

1. Evaluation Survey: Participants need to complete a post-training evaluation survey.
2. Participating teachers may choose to submit a “Climate Action” lesson plan within 14 working days after the completion of the training. If they choose to submit, please use the template provided. The expert team will provide feedback within 10 working days after receiving the lesson plan.
3. SDGCAMPUS Digital Platform resource sharing: teaching slides, templates, and e-book resources are shared on the SDGCAMPUS platform for participants to review.